

Automotive Service Association Affiliated Associations

The international headquarters of the Automotive Service Association is located in North Richland Hills, Texas. With members in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and 15 countries, ASA is the world's largest association representing independent automotive service and collision repair professionals. ASA has 16 affiliated associations throughout the United States. Working hand-in-hand, ASA and its affiliated associations are able to better provide local representation, meetings and education to ASA member businesses.
