Official Membership Application
Educational Member

The Automotive Service Association (ASA) is dedicated to enhancing the professionalism of the automotive service industry through education of owners, managers and technicians. ASA offers its members a proven list of benefits. It arranges for technical and management education and continually strives to build professionalism in the industry. ASA understands the value of working with training facilities to ensure that the students who apply for technical jobs are adequately educated. These students must be able to cope with the extraordinary demands made by advances in technology. To maintain the association's professional service goals, an Educational Membership is offered to any person involved in automotive vocational training or continuing education. Educational members are encouraged to join with ASA and other participating industry groups in efforts to improve the quality of automotive service and the image of those employed in this important industry.
